

FRIDAY 22 November

09.00–09.30 Opening session

Venue: EU Info Centre, Kralja Milana 7, Belgrade

Chair:

Tove Malloy, Chairperson of the First ENTAN conference committee

Speakers:

- Aleksandar Pavlović, Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, University of Belgrade
- Bratislav Marinković, National COST Coordinator for Serbia
- Losoncz Dávid, Representative of the Executive Committee of the Hungarian National Council in Serbia
- Ivan Dodovski, Chair of ENTAN – the European Non-Territorial Autonomy Network

09.30–10.30 Keynote:

Non-Territorial Autonomy in Plurinational States: The Time Has Come
Ephraim Nimni

10.30–11.00 Coffee/tea break

First session

Venue: Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, Kraljice Natalije 45, Belgrade

11.00–12.30

Panel A.1

Theorizing NTA

Chair: Balazs Vizi

Legal Theory and the Concept of NTA
Jacob Dahl Rendtorff

An Ethical Framework for Non-Territorial Autonomy Arrangements
Stipe Buzar

Peace with a Sunset Clause: Legal Theorization of NTA Solutions
Assaf Derri

Karl Renner's Version of National Cultural Autonomy as a Centripetalist Model Piet Goemans

12.30–13.30

Lunch

FRIDAY 22 November

Second session

Venue: Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, Kraljice Natalije 45, Belgrade

13.30–15.00

Panel A.2

NTA and Statecraft

Chair: Tove Malloy

Flipping the Script: Do Groups Claim Non-Territorial Autonomy?
Rémi Léger

Peace in the Middle East: The Matriarchal Version of Plurinational State
Erella Shadmi

The Organization of the French Abroad: A Form of Non-Territorial Autonomy?
Tudi Kernalegenn

The Extent of Human Rights of Non-territorial Autonomy Networks in Terms of State Constraints and History of Development in the Territory of the Slovak Republic
Vladimir Benedik

Panel B.2

Cross-border Cooperation

Chair: Marina Andeva

Minorities in cross-border cooperation – a forgotten potential or a challenge to the concept of minority?
Martin Klatt

Management of Cross-border Cooperation Involving Non-territorial Autonomy – A Case Study on Polish Minority in Zaolzie region, Czech Republic
Joanna Kurowska-Pysz

Polish minority educational institutions in the Czech Republic and their engagement in cross-border co-operation with Poland: proto-diplomacy or not?
Hynek Böhm

The Bulgarian National Minority in Serbia: Cross-Border Cooperation and Modalities of Non-Territorial Autonomy
Mariyan Tomov and Lilia Raycheva

15.00–15.30 Coffee/tea break

Third session

Venue: Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, Kraljice Natalije 45, Belgrade

15.30–17.00

Panel A.3

Theoretical and Historical Aspects of Diversity Management

Chair: Konstantinos Tsitselikis

The Possibilities and Limits of Non-Territorial Autonomy Arrangements in Reaching Indigenous Self – Determination
Natalija Shikova

Panel B.3

Integration of Societies

Chair: Branko Bošković

Social Rights of Minorities in Montenegro: Integration Based on Good Practice
Bojan Božović and Branko Bošković

Implementing Regulation Regarding Minorities Rights in Romania – Special Overview on the Use of Minority Languages
Flavia Lucia Ghencea and Mihnea Claudiu Drumea

FRIDAY 22 November

Panel A.3

NTA and the International Arena in Historical Perspective: The European Nationalities Congress and the League of Nations
David J. Smith

The Syriac Tradition as a Different Form of Demos: Redefining Identity & Belonging Alongside Immigratory and Scattered Communities in Europe
Robert Isaf

Panel B.3

An Overview on Romanian Strategies Regarding Roma Minority Concerning Education and Employment
Laura Patache and Octav Neguriță

Subjectively Perceived Quality of Life of Socially Excluded Roma Communities in the Liberec Region (Czechia)
Emil Drápela

Integration of Ethnic Minorities by Co-production of Public Services
Andrius Pukšas and Dangis Gudelis

SATURDAY 23 November

Fourth session

Venue: Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, Kraljice Natalije 45, Belgrade

9.00–10.45

Panel A.4

Contemporary Perspectives on NTA

Chair: Ivan Dodovski

The Effectiveness of Not-Territorial Cultural Autonomies in Central and South Eastern Europe
Balázs Dobos

Modalities of Non-territorial Autonomy in North Macedonia: A Preliminary Study
Marina Andeva and Ivan Dodovski

The Serbian Model of National Cultural Autonomy and NTA and Its Contemporary Challenges for Collective Identities and Political Participation of National Minorities
Svetlūša Surova

The Perspectives of NTA in the Republic of Moldova
Florin Tudor, Valentina Cornea and Andrea Elena Matic

Non-territorial Autonomy the Lithuanian Way: The Case of the Lithuanian Tatars
Egdūnas Račius

Panel B.4

Israel-Palestine: NTA and the One State Solution

Chair: Ephraim Nimni

A Dual Non-territorial Autonomy for Palestine-Israel – A Way Further for a Stable Solution
As'ad Ghanem

One-State Solution: Is It More Feasible Than The Two-State Solution?
Amneh Badran

Can NTA Refine the (Post-Oslo) Debate between Liberals and Binationalists over a Single Non-partitioned State in Israel/Palestine?
Moshe Behar

NTA as a Solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict
Ephraim Nimni

Protecting the Arabic Language in Israel as a Non-Territorial Autonomy Means to Create Civic Solidarity Between Arabs and Jews
Meital Pinto

SATURDAY 23 November

10.45–11.15 Coffee/tea break

Fifth session

Venue: Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, Kraljice Natalije 45, Belgrade

11.15–12.30

Panel A.5

Kurdish-led Autonomy in Syria: Decentralization and Pluralism

Chair: Cengiz Gunes

Autonomy beyond State and Territory
Joost Jongerden

Minority Accommodation through Decentralization and Non-territorial autonomy (NTA): The Case of the Autonomous Administration of North East Syria
Cengiz Gunes

Women's Rights and the Practice of Non-territorial Autonomy in Northern Syria-Rojava
Rosa Burc

Panel B.5

Aspects of Religion and Education

Chair: Alexandra Ioannidou

Sharia in Greece and Europe after the Mola Sali case
Konstantinos Tsitselikis

Managing Religious Diversity in Education: Addressing Competing (In)equalities in Plural Societies
Kyriaki Topidi

Modalities of NTA in Latvia: Concerns of Muslim Youth
Anita Stasulane and Janis Priede

Education and Cultural Identities. Pedagogical Movements, History, Linguistic and Cultural Normalization in Catalonia during the Twentieth Century
Antonia M. Mora-Luna and Immaculada Colomina Limonero

12.30–13.30 Lunch

Sixth session

Venue: Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, Kraljice Natalije 45, Belgrade

13.30–14.30

Panel A.6

European Post-conflict Perspectives

Chair: Aleksandar Pavlović

Beyond the Territory Principle: Non-Territorial Approach to the Kosovo Question(s)
Jelena Ceriman and Aleksandar Pavlović

Post Conflict Peace-building, Inter-ethnic Relations and Possible Chances for Reconciliation in Balkans
Olivera Injac

Panel B.6

Historical Programmes of NTA for European Jews in the Early 20th Century (I)

Chair: Roni Gechtman

Non-Territorial Autonomy (NTA): Good for the Jews or Bad for the Jews
Guido Franzinetti

Genesis of an Idea: The Bund's Internal Debates on National-Cultural Autonomy at Its 1903 Congress
Roni Gechtman

SATURDAY 23 November

Determination of the Economic Support in the Context of NTA Arrangements for Regional and Socio-economic Development in Bosnia & Herzegovina
Aleksandra Figurek, Una Vasković and Anatoly Goncharuk

Jewish National Councils and Non-Territorial Autonomy at Paris Peace Negotiations: Ethno-national Diplomacy Limiting Ethno-national Sovereignty
Marcos Silber

14.30–15.00 Coffee/tea break

Seventh session

Venue: Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, Kraljice Natalije 45, Belgrade

15.00–16.00

Panel A.7

Speakers of Irish, Romansh and Breton: Non-Territorial Autonomy vs. Territoriality Principle

Chair: David Smith

From Territorial to Network Community: Agency and Empowerment among Breton speakers in Brittany
Stefan Moal

The Irish Gaeltacht as a Trans-Local Phenomenon
Steve Coleman and Éamon Ó Ciosáin

Non-Territorial Autonomy vs Territoriality Principle: Challenges to the Promotion of Romansh in Switzerland
Rico Valär

Panel B.7

Historical Programmes of NTA for European Jews in the Early 20th Century (II)

Chair: Roni Gechtman

Chaim Zhitlowsky's Concept of a Jewish Culture Nation and the Non-territorial Autonomy Strategies of Its Political Realization
Kay Schweigmann-Greve

Between Two Worlds: Antonio Gramsci and the Jewish National Question
Vincenzo Pinto

16.00–16.30

Closing plenary session

Chair: Aleksandar Pavlović
Venue: Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, Kraljice Natalije 45, Belgrade

First ENTAN Conference:
NON-TERRITORIAL AUTONOMY AS A FORM OF PLURINATIONAL DEMOCRACY: PARTICIPATION, RECOGNITION, RECONCILIATION
Belgrade, 22–23 November 2019

